Call before you drive, every time.

THE BOP'S OWN PAPERS DISAGREE. Edgefield's two papers disagree. The visiting rules (April 22, 2024) say in one sentence that visits are Saturday, Sunday and federal holidays, but the schedule right under it lists Sunday, Monday and federal holidays from 8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. The handbook (file created October 2026, no revision date in the text) says Saturday, Sunday and federal holidays from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Call 803-637-1500 before you drive and ask which days and what time visiting starts.[1]

BEFORE YOU GO: GET ON THE LIST

1. When they arrive, your loved one gets a Visitor Information Sheet. They mail it to you with the visiting rules.
2. You fill it out, sign the release authorization form and send it back to their unit counselor. Nothing happens until the counselor has it.
3. The counselor runs an NCIC (criminal record) check. A check is good for two years.
4. The counselor tells them who was approved or denied, and they tell you. Do not drive until you are approved.
5. The list normally holds up to 20 visitors. They can ask for a change or addition once a quarter, on an Inmate Request to Staff form.
6. After the first 72 hours, visits are for immediate family only until the other visitors are verified. A transferred inmate keeps their list, but everyone is checked again through NCIC.
7. A holdover (passing through) can be visited by immediate family only, and the request goes to the unit team at least 3 days before the visit.[1]

AT THE DOOR

SCREENING	At the FCI, everyone must clear the metal detector. Underwire bras may set it off. Everyone is searched at random by a daily random method. Refuse any search and you are turned away.[1]
MONEY FOR VENDING MACHINES	No more than $25 per adult, with no bill larger than $5.00.[1]
WHAT YOU CAN CARRY	One clear plastic bag or container no bigger than 6 inches long, 6 wide and 3 deep, with your photo ID, the vending money, life-essential medicine (heart medicine, inhalers; only what you need for the visit, and staff hold it), worn jewelry that is not electronic, and sealed feminine hygiene items. If you were dropped off, a locker holds everything else.[1]
FOR A BABY	Per child: a clear diaper bag or clear container, 4 diapers, 1 unopened package of wipes, 2 baby bottles with contents and 2 small jars of baby food.[1]
WHAT NOT TO WEAR	No camouflage. No khaki at the FCI, and no olive drab at the camp. No low-cut, see-through, spandex, leggings, tube, tank, halter, crop, sleeveless or backless tops. No swimsuits, sweat suits, hoodies, mesh, open-toe shoes or slides. Shorts and dresses no higher than the bend of the knee, slits included.[1]
ANIMALS	No animals, except trained service animals with proof, after the Operations Lieutenant is told.[1]
WHEELCHAIRS	Visitors who arrive in a wheelchair are searched thoroughly and may be asked to use a wheelchair from Health Services.[1]
HOSPITAL VISITS	A visit to someone in the Health Services Unit or a community hospital needs the Warden's approval, a photo ID, and a pat search. A hospital visit follows that hospital's rules.[1]

ALL VISITING DAYS AND HOURS

WHERE	DAYS	HOURS
FCI (main prison)	See the note below: the two papers disagree. The rules table lists Sunday, Monday and federal holidays, 8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. The handbook lists Saturday, Sunday and federal holidays, 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.	Call to confirm
Satellite camp (SCP)	Odd/even weekends: one weekend only inmates whose register number (first 5 digits) ends in an odd number may visit; the next weekend only an even number. Their unit team has the schedule.	8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.
Special Housing Unit (SHU)	Saturdays. Non-contact. At least one hour. No SHU visitors are processed after 12:50 in the afternoon.	12:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.
