FEDERAL PRISON GUIDE

VISIT PACKET: FCI JESUP

Federal Correctional Institution · Jesup, GA · Phone 912-427-0870

VISIT CARD · CUT OUT AND KEEP IN THE CAR

WHEN Sunday and Monday The rules list no other visiting days.[1]	HOURS 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. The rules give no last-entry time.[1]	VISITS 8 visiting points a month They get 8 visiting points a month.[1]
WHO CAN COME 4 adults at one time No more than 4 adults at one time.[1]	BRING REAL ID The rules say a state-issued REAL ID or a government-issued passport.[1]	CALL FIRST 912-427-0870 Call before you drive, every time.

THE BOP'S OWN PAPERS DISAGREE. Jesup's two papers disagree. The visiting rules (May 15, 2025) put FCI visits on Sunday and Monday, and FSL and camp visits on Friday and Saturday. The handbook (revised February 2016) says visiting is Saturday, Sunday, Monday and all federal holidays, 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., for everyone. The handbook is older. Also, the rules say 16- and 17-year-olds must be on the list and come with an adult; the handbook says they can come alone with written permission from a parent. Go by the 2025 rules and call 912-427-0870 before you drive.[1]

BEFORE YOU GO: GET ON THE LIST

1. In their first days, the unit counselor gives your loved one an Inmate 30-Day Visitation Form. Immediate family listed in their pre-sentence report (mother, father, stepparent, guardian, sister, brother, children, spouse) can visit for 30 days from their orientation while the paperwork is done.
2. The counselor gives them an Authorization for Release (Visitor) and a Visitor Information Form for each person. The rules print the form number as BP-309. (The BOP's national form is BP-A0629; this is not confirmed in Jesup's papers.) They send them to you.
3. Fill them out, sign them and return them directly to the unit counselor. They must arrive within the 30 days, or the temporary approval is suspended.
4. The counselor runs the background check. They are told yes or no, and they tell you. Do not drive until you are approved.
5. The rules let them change the list at any time. They do not set a maximum list size.
6. Holdover (passing through): a list is made within 5 working days, immediate family only.[1]

AT THE DOOR

WHO CAN BE ON THE LIST	They must have known you before prison, unless the Warden makes an exception. Children under 16 do not need to be on the list but must come with an approved adult. Children 16 and 17 must be on the list and come with an adult. Everyone 16 or older who is not immediate family gets a criminal background check (NCIC). A visitor with a felony needs the Warden's approval.[1]
SCREENING	At the FCI and FSL everyone passes through the metal detector and is stamped on the hand with invisible ink, which staff check under a black light when you leave. A medical implant needs a letter from a licensed medical doctor saying what it is and where. Camp visitors may be screened with a hand-held scanner.[1]
MONEY FOR VENDING MACHINES	Up to $25.00, with no bill larger than $5.00. You cannot leave money for their account.[1]
WHAT YOU CAN CARRY	A clear change purse or clear plastic bag no bigger than 6 by 6 by 3 inches; one car key; a comb or brush; jewelry you wear in; a sweater or light jacket; baby items (2 clear empty bottles, up to 6 sealed formula packs, up to 4 sealed baby food containers, 6 diapers, ointment, 1 small blanket, 1 set of clothes); life-maintenance medicine only. Lockers are in the front lobby.[1]
NOT ALLOWED IN	Makeup and lip balm, phones, pagers, cameras, books, magazines, photos, strollers, wallets and purses, sunglasses, hats, hair pins, toys, food and drink, pens, umbrellas, wristwatches, tobacco, gum.[1]
TOUCHING	Handshake, kiss and embrace only at the start and the end of the visit. You may talk only to the person you came to see.[1]
WHAT THEY WEAR	At the FCI and FSL: khaki shirt, pants, belt, socks, underwear and institution orange shoes. At the camp: institution shirt, pants and belt, with personal shoes. At the FCI and FSL they are strip searched before and after. At the camp they are pat searched.[1]
CHILDREN	You must keep control of your children. One warning, then the visit can be ended.[1]
SEX OFFENSE INVOLVING A MINOR	People convicted of a sex offense involving a minor are noted in the visiting system. People with a history of bringing in contraband or breaking visiting rules are given assigned seats.[1]

ALL VISITING DAYS AND HOURS

WHERE	DAYS	HOURS
FCI (medium security)	Sunday and Monday	8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.
Federal Satellite Low (FSL)	Friday and Saturday	8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.
Camp (FPC)	Friday and Saturday	8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

The rules give no last-entry time. Camp visitors may not be on the property before 7:30 a.m., and may not get out of their car before 7:45 a.m., or they lose that day's visit. When the room is full, visits can be cut down to a minimum of one hour. In bad weather no one is admitted until the lieutenant says normal operations have resumed.[1]

The rules list no other visiting days. Federal holidays are not mentioned in the 2025 rules.

GETTING THERE

The address	2600 U.S. Highway 301 South, Jesup, Georgia 31599, just off U.S. Highway 301 South in the southeast part of Jesup. Phone 912-427-0870.
From Savannah (about 65 miles)	Take Interstate 16 to Interstate 95 South, then exit 14 (Richmond Hill). Turn left on Highway 17 South. Go five miles and turn right onto Highway 196 to Hinesville. MAIL AND THE MAILING ADDRESS

Your full name
Your street address
City, State ZIP

STAMP

Their committed name, exactly as the BOP Inmate Locator shows it
Reg. No. _____-___
FCI Jesup
2680 301 South
Jesup, GA 31599

The envelope, filled in. Their name and number must match the BOP Inmate Locator exactly.[2]

The handbook gives the mailing address as their committed name, register number and housing unit, then the institution. Ask your loved one for their unit. The 2016 handbook says outgoing mail must carry a mailing label, and most outgoing mail at the FCI is left unsealed so staff can screen it.[2]

> USE EXACTLY THIS ADDRESS. Jesup has no P.O. Box for inmate mail.

THE MAIL RULES

BOOKS AND MAGAZINES	Hardcover books and newspapers may come only from the publisher, a book club or a bookstore. At a medium security prison, soft-cover books and magazines must also come only from the publisher, a book club or a bookstore. At the camp, soft-cover items other than newspapers may come from any source. Put the sender's address on the outside of the package.[2]
PACKAGES	Packages are usually limited to release clothing and must be approved in advance through their Unit Team.[2]
STAMPS	Do not send stamps in with mail to the camp.[2]
WRITING TO OTHER INMATES	Inmate-to-inmate letters (including to people in other prisons and halfway houses) are not allowed without written approval. It is usually limited to immediate family and co-defendants with a case still going.[2]
LEGAL MAIL	They may seal their own legal or special mail and hand it to staff directly. Outgoing legal mail is scanned by x-ray and similar machines but is not read.[2]
MONEY	The mail room will not accept money. Any funds are sent back to you. Money goes to the BOP lockbox in Des Moines, Iowa (see the Money tab). Use their committed name, no nicknames.[2]
MAIL ROOM HOURS	Certified mail and oversized envelopes are handled at the mail room Tuesday and Thursday only.[2]
