VISIT CARD · CUT OUT AND KEEP IN THE CAR

WHEN

Saturday, Sunday and federal holidays

The 2020 rules give no visiting for sentenced FCI inmates Monday through Friday.[1]

HOURS

8:15 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

On weekends and holidays visitors are not processed before 8:15 a.m.[1]

WHO CAN COME

3 approved visitors

FCI: no more than 3 approved visitors at a time, not counting infants.[1]

BRING

Photo ID

Everyone must carry photo ID (a valid driver's license, current passport, alien ID card with photo).[1]

CALL FIRST

520-574-7100

Call before you drive, every time.

THE BOP'S OWN PAPERS DISAGREE. Tucson's papers are old and disagree on the size of the visiting list. The visiting rules (September 8, 2020, written for the whole complex) allow 30 visitors, no more than 10 of them friends. The handbook (January 2017) says up to 12 visitors on the approved list. They agree on Saturday, Sunday and holiday hours (8:15 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.) and on a limit of three adult visitors. The handbook also says visitors may not be in the parking lots before 8:00 a.m. Call the prison at 520-574-7100 before you drive.[1]

BEFORE YOU GO: GET ON THE LIST

1. Their unit counselor gives them a Visitor Information Questionnaire (BPS-629.052) and a visitor handout. They mail the questionnaire to you.
2. You fill it out, sign the release authorization and send it back to the unit counselor with a copy of your valid photo ID. If you are under 18, a parent or legal guardian must sign.
3. The counselor runs a National Crime Information Center (NCIC) check. If it finds a questionable conviction, the Unit Manager reviews it and, for a former federal inmate, the Warden.
4. The counselor tells them who was approved, and they must tell you and give you the visiting guidelines. Do not drive until you know you are on the list.
5. For holdover inmates, the rules give 15 working days to approve a visiting list.[1]

AT THE DOOR

WHO CAN BE ON THE LIST	A total of 30 visitors, and no more than 10 of them friends or associates. Immediate family named in the pre-sentence report can be added before the background check is done. Friends must have known them before prison unless the Warden approves an exception. A visitor with a prior criminal conviction is reviewed by the Unit Manager and decided by the Warden.[1]
CHANGING THE LIST	They can ask for list changes once every three months. Only the Unit Manager can allow more.[1]
SCREENING	Belongings and vehicles can be searched. Random pat searches and ion scans. A visitor with metal plates or a prosthetic device that sets off the metal detector needs written documentation from a doctor.[1]
WHAT YOU CAN CARRY	A clear change purse (8 inches or less in height and width), photo ID, essential medicine in the amount needed (controlled by the visiting room officer), and money for vending machines: no more than $25.00, in bills of $5.00 or less. No food, drinks or gum from outside. No cell phones, key fobs, cameras, purses, wallets, watches or tote bags. No games, toys, balloons, books, newspapers, pens, photos, cosmetics, tobacco, matches or lighters. Metal lockers are provided.[1]
FOR A BABY	A clear diaper bag (no bigger than 17 by 13 by 7 inches) with: 4 diapers, a clear zip bag of wipes, one change of baby clothes, two clear plastic baby bottles (3/4 full, liquids only), two small unopened jars of baby food, one receiving blanket, one clear drinking cup and one plastic spoon.[1]
WHAT NOT TO WEAR	Business-appropriate clothing. No camouflage, plain t-shirts, hospital scrubs, shorts or Capri pants, bib overalls, or officer-style uniforms. No khaki, orange or green. No low-cut or V-neck tops, sleeveless or see-through clothing, tube, tank, halter or crop tops, backless clothing, swimsuits, sweat suits, break-away pants or open-toe shoes. No sagging pants or gang attire. Dresses must reach the natural break of the leg at the back of the knee, with no slit. No sundresses, overcoats or excessive jewelry. No hats, bandanas or scarves except religious head covering. No watches or electronic sports bands. Children under 12 may wear shorts.[1]
TOUCHING	An embrace and a kiss when you arrive and again when you leave. No open-mouth kissing. No touching during the visit, including holding hands or touching feet. Nobody may sit on each other's laps. For a photo they may hug or hold hands, but kissing is not allowed.[1]
WHEN IT GETS CROWDED	Once the visiting room is full (125 at the FCI), visits end based on how far the visitor drove and how long they have been in the room. The jail units (Yucca and Cholla) are not cut off this way.[1]

ALL VISITING DAYS AND HOURS

WHERE	DAYS	HOURS
FCI, sentenced inmates	Saturday, Sunday and federal holidays	8:15 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.
FCI jail units (Yucca and Cholla): holdover and pretrial inmates	Monday and Tuesday. One visit a day, no time limit.	5:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.
Special Housing Unit (SHU)	Same days and hours as the general population. Limited to two hours, one day a week.	Same hours

On weekends and holidays visitors are not processed before 8:15 a.m. or after 2:00 p.m. Movement in and out of the visiting room stops at 9:30 a.m. on weekends and holidays and starts again when the 10:00 a.m. stand-up count clears. Visiting is first come, first served.[1]

The 2020 rules give no visiting for sentenced FCI inmates Monday through Friday. Weekday visits are for the jail units (Monday and Tuesday evenings).

GETTING THERE

By car	Take Interstate 10 to exit 269 (Wilmot Road) and go south. The FCI is about 1 1/2 miles south of I-10 and Wilmot Road, on the east side of the road. The FCI's address is 8901 S. Wilmot Road, Tucson, Arizona 85756, and its phone number is 520-574-7100. The USP and camp are about one mile further south, on the west side of the road, at 9300 S. Wilmot Road. (From the 2020 visiting rules.)
Airport and taxi	Tucson International Airport is about 7 miles west of the complex. Allstate Cab Company 520-798-1111. Yellow Cab 520-624-6611. Airport Shuttle 520-889-1000. (From the 2020 visiting rules.)

WHAT TO WEAR TO A VISIT

The BOP beats to its own drum. The front desk has the final say. Keep a spare outfit in the car.
