CALL FIRST

318-335-4466

Call before you drive, every time.

THE BOP'S OWN PAPERS DISAGREE. Both Oakdale documents are undated or old. The visiting rules are from April 1, 2014 and give every Saturday, Sunday and federal holiday, 8:15 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. for everyone. The handbook (undated, PDF posted 2026) gives Oakdale II general population Saturday and Sunday except the last Saturday of the month, and the Reintegration Unit only the last Saturday of the month. The handbook lists the camp together with Oakdale I. Call 318-335-4466 before you drive.[1]

BEFORE YOU GO: GET ON THE LIST

1. Your loved one gets the visiting form from their counselor. The 2014 rules name it BP-629(52) (Visitor Information Form) and mail it to you.
2. Fill it out completely and send it back. The handbook says every visitor, even immediate family, must also fill out a Request to Visit form, and a background check is run. An incomplete form means the visit is denied.
3. On the day of your visit you fill out the Notification to Visitor Form, BP-224(52), at the front entrance.
4. Your loved one tells you if you were approved or denied. Do not drive until you are approved.
5. The list holds immediate family plus 10 friends or associates.[1]

AT THE DOOR

WHO CAN VISIT	Immediate family (mother, father, sister, brother, spouse and children) plus 10 friends or other relatives. The warden decides on anyone with a questionable background.[2]
CHILDREN	Children under 16 must come with their parent or legal guardian who is on the approved list. If another approved adult brings them, that adult needs written approval from the parent or guardian. Visitors who are 16 or 17 and alone need a parent or guardian signature on the Visitor Information Form.[2]
SCREENING	Everyone walks through the metal detector. A positive reading means a hand wand. The handbook also lists a positive ION test as a reason to be turned away. Visitors get an ultraviolet hand stamp that is checked when they enter and leave.[1]
MONEY FOR VENDING MACHINES	A small clear coin purse with no more than $30.00 in coins. No paper money. You cannot leave money for their account, and you cannot give or leave items for them.[1]
WHAT YOU CAN CARRY	No handbags, purses, shopping bags, food, gum or tobacco. Keep everything else in your car. Only the prescription medicine you need during the visit is allowed, and the officer holds it. Watches are not allowed in the visiting room.[2]
FOR A BABY	1 clear diaper bag (no bigger than 12 by 12 by 4 inches), 2 disposable diapers, 1 container of baby wipes, 24 oz. of formula mix pre-mixed in bottles, 1 unopened plastic jar of baby food, 1 plastic serving spoon.[2]
WHAT NOT TO WEAR	No sleeveless blouses, tank tops, halter tops, shorts, shower shoes, slippers, open-toe or open-back shoes (all shoes need a strap), see-through or low-cut clothes, clothes showing the middle, tan or fatigue-colored clothing, dresses or skirts above the knee, spandex or tight clothes, hats, hoods, scarves or wigs (except medical or religious), sagging or very loose clothes, sweat suits or wind suits.[2]
TOUCHING	Handshake, hug and kiss only at the start and end of the visit.[1]
WHEN IT GETS CROWDED	Visits end first by volunteering, then by how often the person gets visitors, then visits from within 100 miles, and last by first in, first out.[1]
ONCE YOU LEAVE	If you leave the visiting room for any reason, your visit is over for that day.[1]
