THE BOP'S OWN PAPERS DISAGREE. Tallahassee's visiting rules are very old (April 17, 2014). The newest handbook is from January 2026 but does not repeat the days and hours; it points to the visiting rules. The BOP's facility feed showed "Visiting Suspended" for the main prison on November 2, 2026. Call the prison at 850-878-2173 before you drive.[1]

BEFORE YOU GO: GET ON THE LIST

1. Detention center inmates ask their unit team for a Visiting Form and mail it to each person they want on the list.
2. You fill it out and mail it back, addressed to the detention center unit team. A unit team member then runs the background checks.
3. FCI inmates ask their counselor to add or remove a name with the approved visiting list form.
4. Only approved family are accepted for the detention center. Unit staff tell them the result and they must tell you. Do not drive until you know you are approved.
5. If someone is turned down, the inmate gets an Inmate Visitor Denial form.[1]

AT THE DOOR

WHO CAN BE ON THE LIST	People on the approved visiting list, checked through the pre-sentence report, probation and local law enforcement. The inmate must have known the visitor before prison unless the Warden approves an exception. Detention center inmates: immediate family only (parents, sisters, brothers, step-siblings, spouses). Holdovers and pretrial inmates are normally limited to immediate family on a temporary list.[1]
SCREENING	Your things go through the x-ray machine and you go through the metal detector. If you cannot clear it, the Operations Lieutenant is told and you are not let in.[1]
WHAT YOU CAN CARRY	One clear plastic container or bag. Paper money in bills of $10.00 or less, and coins, no more than $30.00 in all. Medicine you need during the visit is logged and kept at the officer's station. A locker is available for car keys, handbags and cell phones. For a baby: diapers (4), a clear diaper bag, plastic milk or formula bottles (2) and wipes in a clear plastic bag.[1]
WHAT NOT TO WEAR	No low-cut, halter, midriff, deep V-neck, backless or sleeveless tops. No spandex, form-fitting or hip-hugger pants, and no pants that go above the middle of the calf. Skirts and dresses no higher than 3 inches above the knee. No khaki or orange, no camouflage, no see-through clothes, no hats, scarves or doo-rags, no non-prescription sunglasses, no flip-flops or slippers. No sagging pants. Children under 10 may wear shorts at the front lobby officer's discretion. No gang colors or insignia.[1]
WHAT THEY WEAR	FCI inmates: the khaki uniform, clean and neat. Detention center inmates: a clean orange jumpsuit. Only institution-issued shoes or boots, unless they have a medical permit.[1]
SPECIAL VISITS AND MINISTER OF RECORD	A visit by someone not on the list must be approved by the Unit Manager. They ask with an Inmate Request to Staff (BP-A148). One Minister of Record can be added and does not count against the list.[1]
