Call before you drive, every time.

THE BOP'S OWN PAPERS DISAGREE. The Yazoo City handbook is from October 2011 and the visiting rules are from February 18, 2019. They differ: the handbook says 4 adults and 4 dependent children, and each visit costs 1 point of the 5 a month; the 2019 rules say no more than 5 people in total, with points taken only for weekend visits (none for Friday evenings or holidays). The handbook says holding hands is allowed during the visit; the rules only allow shaking hands, kissing and embracing at the start and the end. For the camp, the handbook says Saturday, Sunday and holidays 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.; the 2019 rules say Friday 1:00 to 9:00 p.m. and Saturday, Sunday and holidays 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Both papers are old. Go by the 2019 rules, and call 662-751-4800 (the number in the BOP facility feed) before you drive.[1]

BEFORE YOU GO: GET ON THE LIST

1. Your loved one asks their counselor for a visiting list. The list holds at most 25 visitors aged 16 or older. It should be turned in within the first two weeks at the prison.
2. The counselor gives them a Visitor Information Form (BP-629) and a notice of the visiting rules for each person, immediate family included. They send these to you.
3. You fill out the form and mail it back to the counselor. The prison does not accept completed forms handed in by your loved one.
4. The Unit Team approves or denies each person, ordinarily within 30 days. The counselor tells your loved one in writing. They tell you. Do not drive until you are approved. People with felony convictions can only be approved by the Warden or someone the Warden picks.
5. They can change the list once every 90 days.
6. Transferred from another prison, or passing through? Approval of people already on the list is ordinarily not needed. Anyone without an approved list can add only immediate family.[1]

AT THE DOOR

FORMS YOU SIGN	At the prison you complete a Notification to Visitor form (the rules list it as BP-S224 (52)) in full.[1]
MONEY FOR VENDING MACHINES	Up to $30.00 in total, in bills of $5.00 or less. Your loved one may not handle money or use the machines, and money is not accepted for their account.[1]
WHAT YOU CAN CARRY	One clear plastic purse or bag no bigger than 5 inches high by 8 inches long. For a baby: two see-through bottles (one may be a sipper cup), four diapers and one set of baby clothes. Life-maintenance medicine must be left with the visiting room officer until needed. Lockers are in the front lobbies.[1]
NOT ALLOWED IN	Wallets, credit cards, toys, games, lighters, food, drinks (except for infants), too much jewelry, cosmetics, cell phones, pagers, wrist watches, other electronics, gum and keys. No cameras, and no pictures or video on the grounds.[1]
WHAT NOT TO WEAR	No see-through clothes, skin-tight clothes (spandex), low-cut tops, wrap-around skirts, T-shirts, jogging or sweat suits, camouflage, belly shirts, scrubs, hip huggers, camisoles as outerwear, khaki, bathing suits, tube tops, tank tops, open-back shirts, stirrup pants, leggings or body suits. Sleeveless clothes need a jacket. Skirts and dresses must be longer than two inches below the knee, with slits no higher than two inches above the knee. No shorts (children under 16 only). No hats (except babies) and no sagging pants. Shoes must have a back or strap.[1]
TOUCHING	Shaking hands, kissing and embracing within the limits of good taste, only at the start and the end of the visit.[1]
CHILDREN	There is a children's area. Visitors are responsible for their children. Inmates are not allowed in the children's area.[1]
LEAVING	Once you leave the visiting room you cannot come back the same day. If your loved one leaves to eat in the dining hall, the visit is over for that day.[1]
WHEN IT GETS CROWDED	Visits end in this order: volunteers first, then people who visit two or more times a week and live within 50 miles, then people who live outside the 50-mile radius.[1]

ALL VISITING DAYS AND HOURS

WHERE	DAYS	HOURS

The envelope, filled in. Their name and number must match the BOP Inmate Locator exactly.[2]

The BOP feed gives the inmate mailing address as P.O. Box 5000, Yazoo City, MS 39194. Put their name, register number and unit on the envelope. (The 2011 handbook has separate ZIP+4 codes for Low and for Medium.)[2]

> USE THE P.O. BOX ONLY. Never mail to the street address.

THE MAIL RULES

MAIL DAYS	First-class mail is handed out Monday through Friday evenings, except holidays. There is no mail service on weekends or holidays.[2]
HOW MUCH	No limit on the number of letters, unless it becomes an unreasonable burden. Put their register number and unit on the envelope.[2]
PACKAGES	Every package needs approval first, or must be marked on the front with its contents if policy allows it (like "Magazines Enclosed").[2]
BOOKS AND MAGAZINES	Hardcover books and newspapers must come from a publisher, book club or bookstore. At medium, high-security and administrative prisons, soft-cover items must also come only from those sources. At minimum and low-security prisons, soft-cover items (other than newspapers) may come from any source.[2]
THEIR LETTERS TO YOU	Outgoing letters go in the unit mailbox. The envelope needs their name, register number, the full spelling of the institution and a return address.[2]
MONEY	Never put money in a letter. Funds go to the BOP lockbox: Federal Bureau of Prisons, [Register Number], [Name], Post Office Box 474701, Des Moines, Iowa 50947-0001. Anything enclosed with a money order or check is thrown away.[2]
