FEDERAL PRISON GUIDE

VISIT PACKET: FDC MIAMI

Federal Detention Center · Miami, FL · Phone 305-577-0010

VISIT CARD · CUT OUT AND KEEP IN THE CAR

WHEN Saturday 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.; Tuesda... Ask your loved one which unit they are in before you plan a trip.[1]	HOURS Visiting depends on the unit your loved one is in.[1]	VISITS 4 hours of social visiting a month Each inmate gets 4 hours of social visiting a month.[1]
WHO CAN COME 2 visitors 2 visitors at a time (the visitor sheet says 3).[1]	BRING 16 or older Everyone 16 or older needs valid government ID.[1]	CALL FIRST 305-577-0010 Call before you drive, every time.

THE BOP'S OWN PAPERS DISAGREE. The visiting rules (September 18, 2023) say 2 visitors at a time in the main text, but the visitor sheet in the same rules (Attachment A) says 3 visitors. Both say 4 hours of social visits a month. The main text also says "Unit B" gets no point charges, while the visitor sheet says Unit 6 (the work cadre). Call (305) 577-0010 before you drive.[1]

BEFORE YOU GO: GET ON THE LIST

1. When they arrive, your loved one gets a Request for Visitor Approval form and, if more background is needed, a Visitor Information Sheet (BP-629). They mail them to you.
2. You complete the forms and send them back to their Unit Team. Staff do not accept forms that are incomplete.
3. The Unit Team normally sets up the list within 7 days of getting all the information. It is their job to tell you if you are approved.
4. Pretrial and holdover inmates may list immediate family only: parents, brothers, sisters, children and legal spouse. People with a different last name need proof of the relationship. Anyone with a criminal record needs written approval from the Warden.
5. Florida does not recognize common-law marriage. FDC Miami may consider a significant other or the parent of their children case by case, with papers such as a joint bank account, a deed or a birth certificate.
6. The work cadre can list up to 12 visitors. The list can be changed only once every 90 days, and the first list cannot be changed for 90 days.
7. Children under 18 do not have to be on the list, but can visit only with an approved adult.[1]

AT THE DOOR

MONEY FOR VENDING MACHINES	No bills larger than $5.00, and no more than $25.00 in all. Vending machines are in the visiting room. Food and drinks are not allowed in the front lobby.[1]
WHAT YOU CAN CARRY	A small clear purse, the money above, and medicine limited to what is needed for the visit. For a baby: 2 diapers, wipes, 1 change of clothes, 2 baby bottles with contents, 2 small sealed clear containers of baby food (no glass), and 1 receiving blanket. No cups.[1]
NOT ALLOWED IN	Strollers, carriers, diaper bags, large bags (even clear ones), book bags, food, yellow highlighter markers, newspapers, magazines, cameras, cell phones and any electronic or recording device.[1]
WHAT TO WEAR	Shoes are required (except infants). No shorts of any length (children up to age 7 excepted). No sleeveless clothing (children up to age 7 excepted). No sweatpants, sweatshirts, sun dresses, leotards, wrap-around skirts, crop tops, low-cut or zippered tops, halter tops, bathing suits or backless tops. No hats, caps, headbands, head scarves, hooded garments, wigs, hairpieces or sunglasses. No spandex, tights, clothing with revealing holes, extra outer garments, overcoats or jackets. Nothing like inmate or staff clothing (khaki, orange, green military fatigue, pink, yellow, gray, plain white T-shirts, medical scrubs or any uniform). Nothing see-through. Underwear and bras are required.[1]
CONTACT	An embrace and a kiss when you enter and when you leave. Any other contact can end the visit.[1]
SPECIAL VISITS	Only the Warden, an Associate Warden or the Institution Duty Officer can approve one. A visitor who lives more than 250 miles away or in another country may be approved for two separate two-hour visits in the same week, once every 90 days. Visitors in Florida must show a hardship such as a medical condition or a death in the family.[1]
WHEN IT GETS CROWDED	The visiting room holds no more than 270 people. If it fills, staff may end visits starting with the first arrivals.[1]
TRANSPORTATION	FDC Miami has no pay phones. You must arrange your own transportation. There are several public parking lots within walking distance for a small charge.[1]
